1. How would you like people outside the parish to see the parish? What image would you like the parish to have in the broader community?

An welcoming, spiritual place. A safe place to be who you are. An interesting, stimulating place. A good force in the community.

2. What sets St. Clement's apart from other Episcopal Churches around us? Why would someone drive pass the surrounding parishes to come to this parish?

The welcoming spirit; the reverence and solemnity combined with the messages of unconditional love and acceptance. And, yeah, the music + liturgy too!

3. St. Paul's is the other Anglo-Catholic parish in Seattle. Why would someone decide to join St. Clement's instead of St. Paul's?

African-American heritage; intimate size; easy parking (not kidding!); all the things from #2; great preaching; probably more that my COVID-brain can't name right now...

Would like it if ppl saw STC as a place where they can develop their spiritual life

Welcoming to ppl who are questioning

1. How would you like people outside the parish to see the parish? What image would you like the parish to have in the broader community?

I would like that they saw that it did great outreach in the community (but that's not currently the case) I would like it help with their spiritual growth. I would like that they saw that it was a diverse welcoming, progressive community that cared about its community.

2. What sets St. Clement's apart from other Episcopal Churches around us? Why would someone drive pass the surrounding parishes to come to this parish?

It is smaller & friendlier, & has beautiful music.

3. St. Paul's is the other Anglo-Catholic parish in Seattle. Why would someone decide to join St. Clement's instead of St. Paul's?

- Because they live near St. Clement's?
- Perhaps it's more ethnically diverse?
(I don't know enough about St Paul's to compare them).

1. How would you like people outside the parish to see the parish? What image would you like the parish to have in the broader community?

This is a welcoming, inclusive community which values the mystery of a "high" liturgy but also values parishioners' ability to think, discern & learn... where worship & prayer are real & active, central forces & "love always wins"

2. What sets St. Clement's apart from other Episcopal Churches around us? Why would someone drive pass the surrounding parishes to come to this parish?

The community feeling of this parish; the lovely old building, the high standard of the music ministry (which still is welcoming in which everyone feels needed) and the energy of the Holy Spirit being alive here in works, prayers & humor —

3. St. Paul's is the other Anglo-Catholic parish in Seattle. Why would someone decide to join St. Clement's instead of St. Paul's?

I haven't attended St Paul's but why I'm here is the liturgy, the music (which has also given me personally a point of entry in which to serve) and a perspective that prevails here of love, support & friendship through Jesus Christ.
